One Jailed after Residential Burglary in Lagunitas

Lagunitas, CA- At about 11:15 AM on June 5, 2009, the Sheriff's Office received a call of an argument occurring on Barranca Road in Lagunitas, possibly involving gunfire. The two victims stated that as they pulled into their driveway, they encountered the suspect, who fired one round from a shotgun at them. The suspect also threatened to kill them and their family.

Responding deputies observed a champagne colored Honda Accord fleeing the area. After a short pursuit, deputies detained the driver and solo occupant of the vehicle, Jason Green, a 29 year old male from Forest Knolls.

Both victims identified Green as the suspect. During a search of Green's vehicle, deputies located a television that had been stolen from the victim's residence. In addition, deputies located a shotgun in the area of the arrest.

Green was arrested and booked into the Marin County Jail on charges of burglary, exhibiting a firearm, assault with a firearm, criminal threats and possession of stolen property. Bail was at $1,000,000.00. Green is scheduled to appear in court at 1:30 PM on June 8, 2009.
