Missing Person- San Geronimo Valley – Update- Missing Person Located

Lagunitas, CA- On March 4, 2010 at about 11 AM, the Marin County Sheriff's Office received a call from a caregiver on Barranca Road in Lagunitas reporting a missing person. The caregiver stated that Frances "Frankie" Bellman has been missing since 9:00 last night. Frankie is 90 years old and suffers from memory loss and other medical problems. She is 5'3" tall, weighs 115 pounds and has short grey hair. She was last seen wearing an unknown color shirt, light blue pants and dark blue tennis shoes.

Residents of the San Geronimo Valley are encouraged to check their yards and out buildings now and every few hours in an effort to locate Frankie. The Marin County Sheriff's Office Search and Rescue team along with canine search dogs have been requested to respond to the area to assist with the search. The Sheriff's Office also has a fixed wing aircraft providing aerial search assistance.
