San Rafael –

Janell Myhre, Emergency Services Coordinator, Marin County Sheriff Office of Emergency Services (OES), received the prestigious California Emergency Services Association Coastal Chapter's William "Bill" Singer Award on August 12th for notable efforts in emergency management and preparedness in her first year of service.

Janell joined the Marin County OES in June, 2009. With modest experience in writing emergency plans and coordinating the efforts of many different agencies, Janell was tasked with serving as the Marin County coordinator for the Regional Catastrophic Planning Grant Program (RCPGP).

She wrote the best five catastrophic plans in the San Francisco Bay Area in a very compressed time frame, representing local government input at a Regional and State level, as well as involving input from over thirty Marin County local agencies, creating team work and relationships which will save lives and last for years to come.

She also wrote, maneuvered political waters and delivered the nation's first, non-wildlife volunteer oil spill plan which was vastly needed and is now being used in the Gulf Deepwater Horizon oil spill recovery.

We commend Janell for her accomplishment and are proud to have her as a member of the Marin Sheriff's OES team.
