II FireWise & FireSafe Marin – Neighborhood & Marin County efforts

- Christie Neill, MCFD Battalion Chief, Vegetation Management Program, past chair of FireSafe Marin, was warmly welcomed.
- FireSafe Marin was formed as a Nonprofit 501(3)(c) organization. Its 16 Board members range from BOS member Katie Rice, retired and active fire professionals, water district reps, and others dedicated toward wildfire prevention.²
- The FireSafe Marin program provides a wide range of professional and public programs, including:
 - Vegetation Management grants, including chipper services³
 - Development of the Community Wildfire Protection Plan (CWPP) 2016⁴
 - Live feed wildland fire detection cameras⁵
 - Multiple fire preparedness programs⁶ and more.
- FireSafe Marin, in turn, supports the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA)'s FireWise USA neighborhood preparedness program.⁷
- The FireWise program invites local groups, such as homeowner or neighborhood associations, to self-organize wildfire preparedness efforts in collaboration with local fire agencies, following a six step template:⁸

² FireSafe Marin Board: <http://www.firesafemarin.org/about/board>

³ Vegetation Mgmt / Chippers: <http://www.firesafemarin.org/programs/vegetation-management>

⁴ Community Wildfire Protection Plan (CWPP) <http://www.firesafemarin.org/cwpp>

⁵ Live Feed Fire Detection cameras: <http://www.firesafemarin.org/remote-fire-detection-cameras>

⁶ FireSafe Marin Preparedness: <http://www.firesafemarin.org/preparedness>

⁷ NFPA FireWise program: <https://www.nfpa.org/Public-Education/By-topic/Wildfire/Firewise-USA> See the new user / application portal: <https://portal.firewise.org/user/login> and basic information: <https://www.nfpa.org/Public-Education/By-topic/Wildfire/Firewise-USA/Become-a-Firewise-USA-site>

⁸ Six Step FireWise Template: <http://www.firesafemarin.org/firewise> . See also: <http://www.firesafemarin.org/recognition-process>. The local council should consist of at least 3 individuals. The dwelling units must be of a manageable size: 8 to a maximum of 2,500 units. Some neighborhoods select demonstration areas of a larger HOA to prove the effectiveness of the project prior to rolling it out to the entire community.

Public Disaster Education and Preparedness (PDE+P) Committee of the Operational Area Disaster & Citizens Corps Council (DC3)
Committee Meeting – Monday March 5, 2018

- Form a Firewise board or committee.
- Obtain a wildfire risk assessment for your neighborhood or community.⁹
- Create an Action Plan.
- Conduct educational outreach in your neighborhood.¹⁰
- Invest a minimum of $24.14 / home in wildfire risk-reduction actions per year.¹¹
- Document efforts through our state Firewise liaison - FIRESafe MARIN will help!
- California leads the nation with approximately 138 State FireWise sites and about 1,400 sites nationally. Marin has 11 sites, and about a dozen in the process of becoming sites.
- The FireWise program offers a great many benefits, including
 - Communities are more likely to survive wildfires.
 - Participants have excellent training / learning tools.
 - There is a framework for community building, collaboration, and action.
 - Some insurance companies, such as USAA, offer premium discounts.
 - Free educational materials: handouts, posters, bilingual materials.
 - Communities may apply for grants and emollients such as free signs.
- NFD Fire Chief Bill Tyler commented one FireWise site, the Marin Valley Mobile Home Community, initially resisted needed vegetation clearance until a wildfire broke out on the hill above the homes. Residents then understood how critical clearance around their homes was, and have made great progress since then in implementing FireWise efforts. It is helpful if the council first completes the local risk assessment and proposed vegetation plan in writing in order to get competitive bids from landscaping contractors.
- Multiple Marin Communities already have formed FireWise USA Sites, and many more are in the process of creating sites:
 - Homestead Valley
 - Rancho Santa Margarita
 - Scott Highland Neighborhood
 - Mill Valley Meadows HOA
 - Marinview Community Association
 - Marin Valley Mobile Country Club
 - Pacheco Valle, Novato
 - Sleepy Hollow (San Anselmo)

⁹ The FireWise Risk Assessment can build on the detailed Marin County Community Wildfire Protection Plan (CWPP) downloadable at: <http://www.firesafemarin.org/cwpp> The plan includes a detailed analysis of Marin risks, response capability, maps, recommendations and action plans.

¹⁰ Some of the local annual events that qualify include public educational meetings, distribution of educational materials such as the FireSafe Marin plants lists (<http://www.firesafemarin.org/plants>), community work parties such as chipper days, demonstration gardens, fire hazard inspections, and evacuation / neighborhood response drills. See: http://www.firesafemarin.org/images/documents/resources/firewise/FIRESafe_MARIN_Firewise_Toolkit_2017_Community_Recognition_Program.pdf

¹¹ The local investment estimate of $24.14 per home is based on a national study of one hour's worth of volunteer time: <https://independentsector.org/resource/the-value-of-volunteer-time/> and does not mean any of the reported funds must leave the community. Rather, an hour of volunteer time is calculated by the local FireWise committee, and may be matched with grants, local vegetation management efforts, community education expenses, and other contributions – all of which stay in the FireWise community. If homeowners have private gardeners who regularly do vegetation clearance, homeowners can report fees paid to their landscapers to the FireWise board to meet the fiscal goal for the community.

Public Disaster Education and Preparedness (PDE+P) Committee of the Operational Area Disaster & Citizens Corps Council (DC3) Committee Meeting – Monday March 5, 2018

- Scott Valley Homeowner Association
- Shelter Ridge Homeowner's Association
- Blithedale Highlands Owner's Association
- The goal is to create fire-resistant communities. FireWise is but one way a community can accomplish this goal. Individuals should also look to the Ready / Set / Go online and interactive training for individuals and families.¹²
- Public agencies, such as Marin Open Space, are willing to collaborate with private landowners in vegetation management.¹³
- A priority in any local plan should be to make sure every community has adequate evacuation access for responders & egress to evacuate residents. Homes covered in flammable materials, such as juniper, can trap people in the fire zone. This subject is developed in the listed CWPP, and State and local laws and ordinances.¹⁴
- Members were advised of several public forums on wildfires (see handouts distributed).
