

De-Escalation

De-escalation training assists deputies in calming a situation using officer presence and communication. De-Escalation techniques are used to resolve the crisis without the use of force. By de-escalating, we can keep ourselves and others at a manageable threat level—one that allows us to hear others, and respond calmly and productively.

“In Partnership with our Communities”

www.marinsheriff.org