

Missing Persons Investigation

Course Summary:

Today, law enforcement officers face ever increasing incidents of missing and lost persons investigations. Marin County has a large population of children, elderly individuals and tourists who frequent the area. Marin County also has a large geographical area of wilderness and public access parks. As a result we receive many reports of missing and lost individuals. This course offers classroom instruction and a practical exercise on how best to find missing and lost individuals

Performance Objectives

Students will be able use best law enforcement practices on locating missing and lost individuals. Emphasis will be placed on the investigation of locating missing and lost juveniles, elderly individuals and tourists in the wilderness.